

Carlos Tavares

CEO of Stellantis

Co-Chair of the Freedom of Mobility Forum Advisory Board

Business

Carlos Tavares is Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director at Stellantis. With a proud heritage stretching back 125 years, Stellantis is a sustainable mobility tech company that is home to 14 iconic vehicle brands and two mobility service arms.

Carlos Tavares' career in the automotive industry spans decades and his passion for cars was already sparked as a young teen when he discovered motor racing. Still a driver of fast cars with more than 500 races to his name and keen on leading business innovation, he is at the forefront of the tech revolution, focused on providing clean, safe and affordable mobility while driving Stellantis toward an ambitious carbon net zero target by 2038, ahead of the competitors.

Career

- Chairman of the Managing Board of Groupe PSA (March 2014)
- Groupe PSA's Managing Board (January 2014)
- Chief Operating Officer of Renault (2011-2013)
- Executive Vice President, Chairman of the Management Committee Americas and President of Nissan North America (2009)
- Various positions within the Renault Group (1981-2004)

He is a graduate of École Centrale Paris (ECP).