

Sobel Aziz Ngom

Co-Chair of the Advisory Board and Youth Representative

Sobel Aziz Ngom is the co-founder of CJS, an entrepreneurial alliance of youth organizations, specializing in developing innovative solutions to help solve key learning, socio-professional insertion and inclusion challenges for Senegalese youth. In 2020, the CJS launched “YAAKAAR” – a 20-million-dollar, multi-stakeholder initiative for suburban youth.

In 2016, he received the Jambar Tech award for “Best Social Entrepreneur” of the year in Senegal for his TV program Voices of Youth.

Through his experience in youth development, Sobel has advised and collaborated with African governments, as well as with international foundations, some UN agencies and major corporations.

Other Positions

- Co-organizer of the GESF 2023 (Global Social Economy Forum) in Dakar
- Board of Advisors of the Mastercard Foundation (2020-current)
- Ashoka Fellow for Civic Engagement (2022)
- Board of Directors of Generation Unlimited, a multi-billion-dollar global partnership for youth initiated by the UN (2018-now)
- Founding executive director of Social Change Factory, an African innovation and citizen leadership center (2014-2020)
- Africa Hub Manager of Ashoka Changemakers, a platform involving a network of more than 2,000 young African social entrepreneurs
- Participant in the first YALI program launched by President Obama (2014)